D. Advisor Assessment and Scoring

Score each criterion using the following scale:

- 4: Fully meets expectations: Complete, rigorous, and ready to proceed.
- 3: Mostly meets expectations: Adequate; minor revisions are needed.
- 2: Developing: Partially complete; substantive revisions are needed.
- 1: Limited progress: Major deficiencies require immediate attention.
- 0: No evidence: Not submitted or not addressed.

Assessment Criterion	Advisor Score	Advisor Comments
The student clearly summarizes the major feedback received from faculty, advisor, and peer review and demonstrates an understanding of the revisions required.	___ / 4
The revised manuscript demonstrates meaningful progress and appropriately incorporates the recommended revisions received to date.	___ / 4
Any remaining scientific, methodological, or writing issues have been identified, and the student has a clear plan to address them before the final submission deadline.	___ / 4
The student demonstrates readiness to prepare and deliver the final capstone presentation, including the ability to clearly communicate the study rationale, methods, findings, and clinical implications.	___ / 4
The capstone manuscript is on track for final submission by March 22, 2027.	___ / 4

Total Score	___ / 20

Advisor's Overall Progress Determination

[ ] Green – On track: The project is appropriately scoped, and the student is prepared for the next milestone.

[ ] Yellow – Support required: Correctable deficiencies remain. Specific actions and a follow-up date are required.

[ ] Red – At risk: The question is not yet feasible or sufficiently developed. A formal remediation plan and program notification are required.
